

Strings Are Back!

Whether your student is new to strings, or a continuing strings student, we look forward to working with him or her this school year!

- Instruction for Tom McCall students will be offered before school from 8-9 a.m., with teacher Ann Cullen
- Instruction for Neil Armstrong students will be offered after school from 2:45-3:45 p.m., with teacher Kathy Walden
- Pacific University's music department is planning an instruction program for third and fourth graders. More details to come soon.

Please join us for a Parents Night to learn more about the strings program.
